

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA
EASTERN DIVISION

George D. McCarley
Plaintiff

2007 JUL -5 | A 10:29

Civil Action No. 3:06-CV-00091-MEF
Lead Case

v.

Household Finance Corporation III
Defendant

NOTICE CONCERNING SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE AND MEDIATION

1. This document is filed with the court as per the courts Uniform Scheduling Order, Document 44-1, filed on March 23, 2007; page 2, Section 5; which reads:

On or before June 29, 2007, counsel for all parties shall conduct a face to face settlement conference at which counsel shall engage in good faith settlement negotiations. If settlement cannot be reached, counsel will also discuss whether mediation will assist the parties in reaching settlement. Not less than 5 days after this conference, counsel for the plaintiff shall file (this report). This pleading shall indicate whether settlement was reached, and, if not, whether the parties believe mediation will assist them in resolving this case short of trial.

2. Plaintiff and Counsel for the Defendant held a three hour conference (face to face) on June 11, 2007. The parties discussed and exchanged materials, disclosure disputes, and settlement prospects. Plaintiff forwarded a revised settlement proposal and has not received definite written feedback until today, July 3, 2007. (see defense counsel statement, page 2)

3. Plaintiff believes this is a calculated delay and not an act of good faith by defendant. Settlement was not reached and mediation has not been discussed, therefore the conference cannot be complete. This notice is provided as per Uniform Scheduling order above.

4. Plaintiff believes this additional act of defendant delay is yet another is a string of delays calculated to continually starve this IFP plaintiff and is considering possible options leading to equitable relief, including possibility of an advanced trial schedule petition.

Respectfully Submitted

Mr. McCarley:

At this point, I do not have any settlement authority to offer in response to your demand. If you would like to touch base early next week about feedback that I received on this front, I would be happy to discuss the same with you. I will be in the office all day on Monday. As I understand the Court's order, in light of our having previously held a face to face meeting and discussing this matter today, you would have until July 5, 2007 (since July 4 is a holiday) to provide the information to the Court that it requests in the Scheduling Order. I can assist with the drafting and filing of this report to the Court if you would like my help. Let me know your thoughts in this regard.
